

RELATIONSHIP CARD

RELATIONSHIP CARD

RELATIONSHIP CARD

RELATIONSHIP CARD

RELATIONSHIP CARD

RELATIONSHIP CARD

RELATIONSHIP CARD

RELATIONSHIP CARD

LOVE

Use your imagination and think about the love relationship between you and another group member.

Are you flirting with someone from the group?
Have you been secretly writing love letters to someone?

Speak from your character, taking into account its qualities.

OR USE THIS ONE

You're often writing love letters to the person on your right, but then pretend you're not interested.

Why do you pretend you're not interested?
How does that person react to your letters?

LOVE

Use your imagination and think about the love relationship between you and another group member.

Are you in love with someone from the group?
Have you been in a relationship with someone from the group?

Speak from your character, taking into account its qualities.

OR USE THIS ONE

You're in love with the person on your left, but it's not mutual.

What is it that attracts you to that person?
How do you deal with being in this one-way love?

ECONOMY

Use your imagination and think about the economic relationship between you and another group member.

Are you economically dependent on someone from the group?
Do you owe money to someone from the group?

Speak from your character, taking into account its qualities.

OR USE THIS ONE

Last year you borrowed 200€ from the person on your left to buy a bicycle.

How did the person react when you wanted to borrow money?
Have you ever returned the money?

ECONOMY

Use your imagination and think about the economic relationship between you and another group member.

Are you helping someone from the group economically?
Have you lent money to someone?

Speak from your character, taking into account its qualities.

OR USE THIS ONE

You are helping the person on your right weekly by buying them groceries.

How did you start doing that?
What do you usually buy?

CONFLICT

Use your imagination and think about the conflict between you and another group member.

Are you in conflict with someone from the group?
Was there a big fight between you and someone from the group in the past?

Speak from your character, taking into account its qualities.

OR USE THIS ONE

A few weeks ago you got into a fight with a person on your left.

What was the fight about?
How did it end?

CONFLICT

Use your imagination and think about the conflict between you and another group member.

Does someone from the group make you irritated or nervous?
How did you handle your last conflict?

Speak from your character, taking into account its qualities.

OR USE THIS ONE

The person to your right is often going on your nerves.

What triggers that?
What do you do when that happens?

FAMILY

Use your imagination and think about the family relationship between you and another group member.

Is someone in this group your family member?
Have you ever felt with someone from this group as close as they were family?

Speak from your character, taking into account its qualities.

OR USE THIS ONE

You are married to the person on your left for 5 months.

How did you decide to get married?
What are your thoughts on having kids?

FAMILY

Use your imagination and think about the family relationship between you and another group member.

Do you have family member in this group?
Have you ever considered adopting someone from this group to your family?

Speak from your character, taking into account its qualities.

OR USE THIS ONE

The person on your right is your sibling.

Are you blood relatives?
What was your relationship like when you were younger?

HISTORY

Use your imagination and think about the history between you and another group member.

When and how did you meet another member of this group?

What is the most intense situation you went through with another member of this group?

Speak from your character, taking into account its qualities.

OR USE THIS ONE

You have first met the person on your right in a protest where you both were attacked.

What was the protest about?

How did the attack finish?

HISTORY

Use your imagination and think about the history between you and another group member.

Have you ever felt embarrassed in front of another member of this group?

What was the funniest situation that you and another member of this group have found yourselves in?

Speak from your character, taking into account its qualities.

OR USE THIS ONE

Once you and the person on your left got drunk and fell into a fountain.

Why did you get drunk?

What did you do after falling into the fountain?

CREATE YOUR OWN

What is your relationship with another character like?

Is there love or a family relationship?

What about the economic relationship?

Were there any intense conflict or interesting history?